

Tip of the week:

How to play the downhill chip shot:

1. Wide stance and weight on the left

2. Ball position Slightly back and backswing more upright

3. Swinging down with the slope

Bare in mind that the slope will create less loft and more roll out on the green. Try and compensate by using more loft and play your landing zone closer to allow for more roll out.